

INTERIOR DESIGN[®]

MAY 31
2019

what a looker!
spring market tabloid

FABRIC & WALL covering

Shanan Campanaro
of Eskayel

Adam Hunter
for Studioart Leather Interiors

Samantha Gillis
of HD Walls

Sir Paul Smith
for Maharam

product Bali Stripe
standout From the Jacquard collection, a 54-inch cotton woven on the signature European looms and printed to order by the yard boasts stripes of trippy water-color patterns. eskayel.com

product Bel Air
standout A suite of printed-leather wall tiles produced in four palettes, from cool blue to rich brown, enables installation options aplenty, including pixelated patterns and ombrés. studioart.it/en

product Paracosm
standout Biophilic design is everywhere, from furniture and lighting to the brand's four-pattern Perdita series of mural wall coverings, digitally printed in transparent ink on high-tech metallic substrates such as Spectre and Terralon. hdwalls.com

product Angles
standout The British fashion icon foregoes his signature stripes in favor of triangles, translating a silk scarf he designed for his 2015 menswear collection into a polyester-cotton jacquard offered in aquamarine, opal, agate, jasper, and citrine colorways. maharam.com ➔

Cypress Wrap in bottle green, Oak Primavera in aurora, Maple Wrap in celadon, and Small Willow Lace in tourmaline/aurora hand-blown glass objects with brushed-brass bases by Tracy Glover Studio. Shanan Campanaro's Regalo Di Dio and Cortile clay-coated paper wall coverings in Verde by Eskayel. ➔