Fresh Looks at the Art of Living Beautifully

In Bloom

Tapped to create a large-scale wallpaper mural for the Norton Simon Museum in Pasadena, California, Shanán Campanaro, founder of Eskayel, had dual inspirations: the work of French artist Henri Matisse and a floral textile she acquired from Belize. The result is a striking new collection, Belize Blooms, that experiments with color, lines, and form to create a softer depiction of the Central American country's lush flowers. | eskayel.com, available at Salon, Boston, salondesign.us
